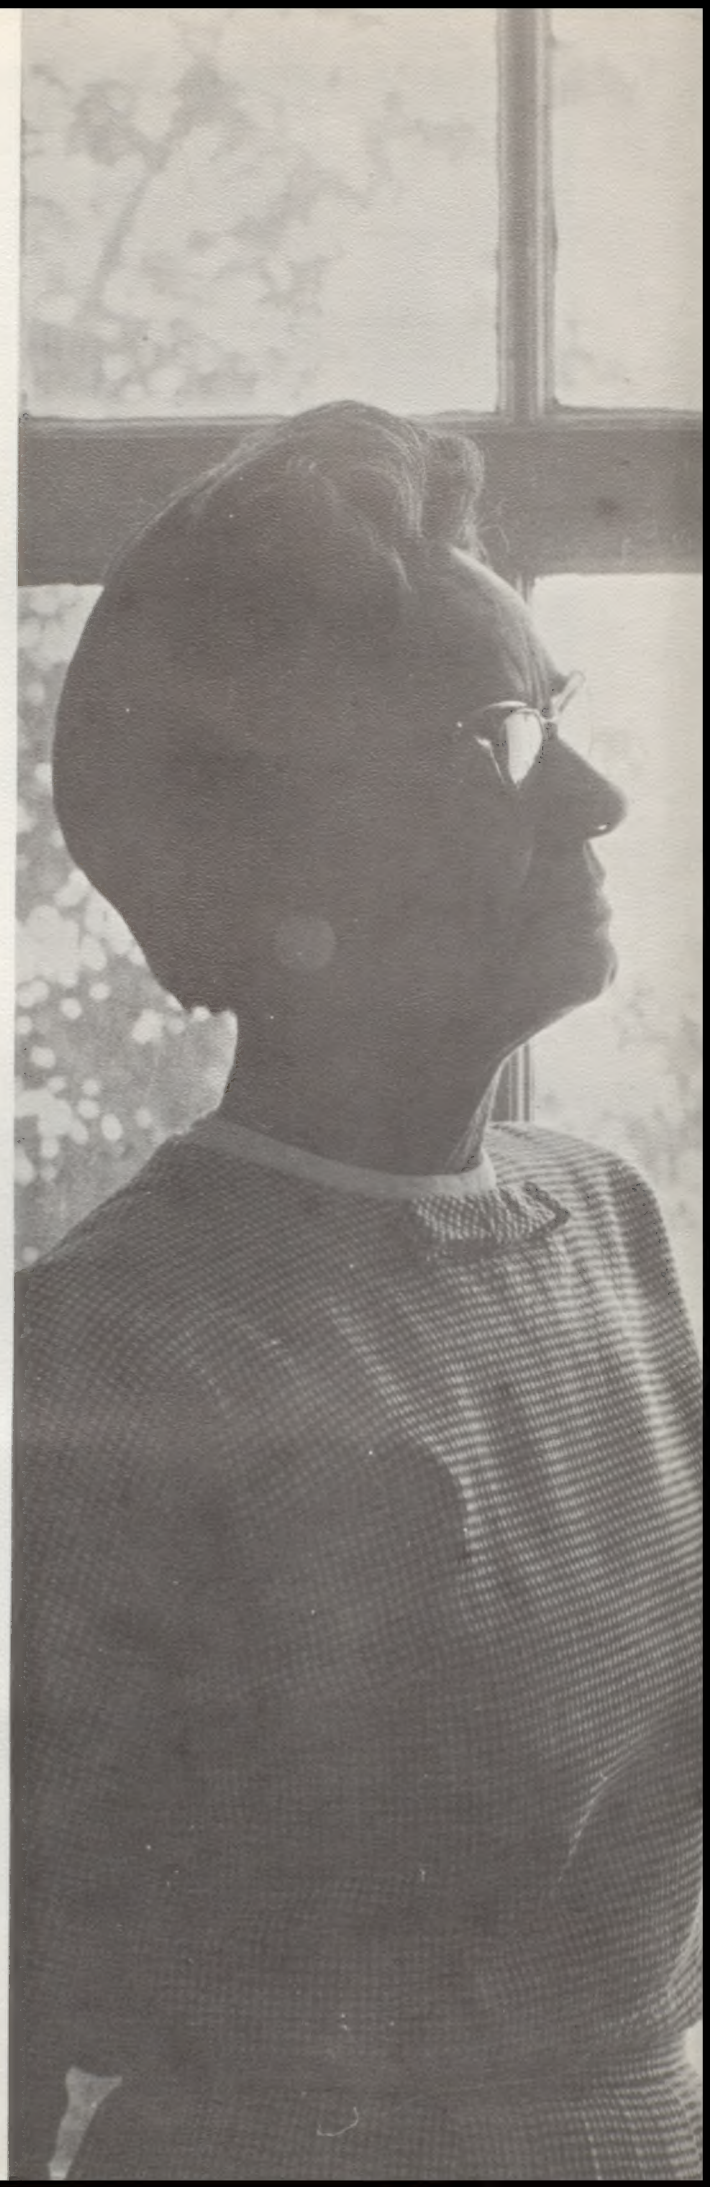
Miss Lucille Di Vecchio confers with a fellow counselor, Mr. Calder Hayes.



Miss Lucille Di Vecchio explains the college requirements to a counselee.

Miss Lucille Di Vecchio has put her regard for youth to use at Alameda High School for the past 36 years. As a counselor, she has endeavored to help students understand their potentials and accept the problems that will follow their ambitions. She has helped them find where they belong.

As a student at Alameda High, Miss Di Vecchio had a part in forming the Girls' Athletic Association. At the University of California she was the president of the Women's Block "C" and a member of Prytanean and Mortar Board, both scholastic and service honorary societies for women. She did her graduate work at the College of Holy Names, San Francisco State College, and the University of California.

During 1949-50, Miss Di Vecchio was president of the Alameda Secondary Teachers' Association and in 1964 was representative to the Bay Section of the California Teachers' Association. Her continuing work in that organization included the chairmanship of the city-wide committee to collect money to aid teachers who lost their jobs in the fight for civil rights.

For the past several years Miss Di Vecchio has been in charge of all the arrangements for the All School Play at Alameda High. In the past, she sponsored the Girls' Athletic Association.

As an active parishoner of the First Unitarian Church of Oakland, Miss Di Vecchio became a member of its Board of Trustees. For two years she was the chairman of the summer program for the church and has been a delegate to the Central District Conference of the Pacific Coast Unitarian—Universalist Conference. She served as a member of the College Centers Committee of the latter, and is a member of the American Association for University Women.

Miss Di Vecchio is interested in the social and political problems of our time. She has been active in the American Civil Liberties Union, which works to guarantee individual rights, and is a member of the United World Federalists, who are interested in world peace.

In her endeavors at school and her productivity in society, Miss Lucille Di Vecchio is a model for youth, the yardstick to be measured against, the ruler for achievement.

demands on

A principal's job is a difficult one, for not only is he responsible for his students, he must also meet and work with parents, school district officials, and a variety of community groups. It therefore entails many hours of work both before and after the students have gone home. His office lights frequently burn hours after dark. During this spring's flu epidemic, Mr. Cioffi covered many teachers' classes while they were ill.

Born in New York, Mr. Cioffi attended military academies in Tennessee and New Jersey before coming to California and San Francisco State. He majored in History and was student body president before going on to a master of science degree at the University of California.

In 1934 Mr. Cioffi began teaching in Red Bluff, California. Two years later, he came to Alameda as a teacher at Haight School. Later he held the positions of Haight School vice principal and principal. Before becoming principal of Alameda High in 1964 he was also principal of Longfellow School.

For twenty-two years Mr. Cioffi held the summer job as a ranger in Lassen National Park; and at one time he almost quit teaching to become a full time ranger.

Mr. Cioffi often finds a deserted hallway awaiting him after a long day.

Mr. Cioffi forgets his present problems in order to aid Mr. Whyte.

At a private meeting with Dr. Snell, Mr. Cioffi dwells upon a report given by a teacher.

Mr. Barry Conner, dean of students, has a last minute thought before he leaves for the day.

Dr. James Snell, vice-principal, intently views a crucial play at the San Leandro game.

Mrs. Helen Hoeksema, vice principal, has a number of jobs. She directs the Girls' Association, American Field Service, Board of Control, the program for new teachers and substitutes, the federal survey, and AHS public relations.

Dr. James Snell, vice principal, is equally busy. He works out the scheduling of classes, develops the curriculum, supervises teachers and their problems, determines class sizes and teacher load, assists in planning special programs such as those financed by the National Defense Education Act, and aids in student activities such as sports and academic life.

Mr. Barry Conner, dean of students, is always busy with the school's masses. He is in charge of disciplining 2,500 students, advising student body officers, Ad Board representatives, and the Assembly Planning Committee.

The Board of Education had a demanding job this year in dealing with school finances. It is responsible for a six million dollar budget and for maintaining 15 million dollars' worth of school buildings and grounds. This year one-half million was spent on the remodeling of our own science wing. Construction also began on the Chipman School, the Will C. Wood School, and a new wing on the Donald D. Lum School, and the Board had Bay Farm Island surveyed for several elementary schools and a third high school. Thirty more teachers were hired to meet expanding enrollment and 439,000 dollars was requested in federal grants to finance programs in reading, expanded guidance services, work experience, and pre-school education.

The Board of Education is also responsible for over 600 employees, 14 elementary schools and two high schools totaling 11,400 students, a Child Care Center, and a comprehensive adult school program.

The Board of Education began five new phases in their work: to open a continuation school for students who dropped out of high school; to begin the procedures to implement the new teacher's suspension law; to engage in a Neighborhood Youth Corps program; to adopt policies governing Board-employee relations; and to conduct a "Head Start Program" under the Federal Anti-Poverty Act for pre-schoolers.

The counseling staff had three new features this year, Mr. Calder Hayes and Mr. Allan Whyte, as well as Mrs. Elouise Graf, who counseled at the elementary schools. Mrs. Graf aided the 7th and 8th grade students in preparing for high school.

The counselors try to help the students with their social and personal problems, show them their capabilities, help them learn to make decisions, and take on their informal, vocational, and occupational concerns.

There are four areas of study in each year of English: reading and literature, writing, grammar, and oral presentation. Special classes, such as public speaking, reading lab, and humanities are also offered.

The reading lab was created only last year to help students improve their reading skills. It is taught three periods in the morning by Mrs. Eloise Graf. The new equipment used is available to the other English classes also.

A new humanities course for Seniors this year was financed by an NDEA (National Defense Education Act) Grant. In a team teaching effort by Miss Fran Claggett and Miss Madge Holland, the fourth and fifth period classes learned about the ideas of man in art, music, painting, literature, and poetry. Guest lectures, participated in the program, which also included a field trip to the Giaccometti Art Exhibit at the San Francisco Museum of Art, and to the Stanford Repertory Theatre to see Aeschylus' play "Prometheus Bound." The students have at their disposal new library books, art slides, records, and humanities films.

for freshman

This year two new text books were used by the freshmen for a new aspect in freshmen Math. Math AB was changed in the respect that it was taught in the terms of the "new math." The department felt this step was necessary since most incoming freshmen were oriented in the "new math." Another change in curriculum brought a course offering geometry AB or geometry for freshmen.

New models were used in the trigonometry, and algebra section and conic sections for geometry for further class understanding.

New films and film strips are added to the visual aid library for the different math classes as well as new texts for second semester math analysis, which includes math logic, vectors, analytic geometry and functions.

The Math Department in the future plans to have lectures given by college professors in the various classes and extensive participation by students in national math contests.

science expands, changes

On December 31 Alameda science students attended the lectures given by the American Association for the Advancement of Science at the University of California. Two Nobel prize winners spoke, as well as other science dignitaries. The Association's presence was a rare occasion. Its last convention on the Pacific Coast was 20 years ago.

At Alameda High School students also had a rare experience. Last fall they went to class in quonset huts and portable buildings while the science building was remodeled. The four quonset huts, situated in the Boys' P.E. Yard, were used for physiology. They were politely described as a total disadvantage by Mr. Robert Berges, Department head.

The portables in the Girls' P.E. Yard were rated as good temporary facilities. The physics classes had a small lab compared to the good laboratories of the chemistry classes. The portables had light control, air conditioning, thermostatic heat control, black boards, gas for fuel in the labs, and running water.

A bond issue passed in 1963 provided the funds for remodeling the old building. When the students returned to the new building this spring, they found almost complete class improvements. Biology rooms had laboratories where there had been none, the chemistry labs were brought up to date, physioogy facilities were improved, and the first year science rooms had laboratories equal to those of the chemistry classes.

Fourth year Spanish students began a newspaper, La isla de oro, filled with student writings in Spanish. With funds from sales of the newspaper they took Marcos Clemente, foreign exchange student, for an outing in San Francisco. And on December 15, the second year Spanish students gave a party for Alameda seventh and eighth grade students who were learning Spanish.

by reviewing

There are four years of history offered at Alameda High, world history, modern history, U.S. history and government.

World history is meant to give freshmen an outline or survey of what has happened to the human race throughout the centuries. Modern history is for the student who wishes to learn about the present time. U.S. history tries to make one an effective citizen by teaching the steps our government took to reach its present status. Government is two classes: civics, the operation of government at all levels, and economics, how man makes his living.

California history and senior problems were also offered to seniors. The goal of the History Department is to make a person a good citizen when he graduates.

and quonsets

This year the boys and girls P.E. yards were occupied by quonset huts and portable buildings used by science and home economics classes while the East wing was being remodeled. Because of this handicap the boys volley ball games were dropped and basic skills, folk dancing, and fencing were added to fill the girls curriculum.

Another addition to the P.E. program was the California Physical Performance Tests which are required by state law. Both the boys and girls were tested during the spring to determine their physical capabilities.

According to Mr. Forrest Klein, head of boys P.E., and Miss Edith Carpenter, head of girls P.E., both programs are based on four things: physical, social, emotional needs. The purpose of the department is to teach students individual or carry-over sports for use after they graduate.

There are five areas in the creative arts, art, vocal music, string ensemble, band, and drama.

This year there are four years of art instead of three, Art AB, CD, and newly formed EF as well as Advanced Art.

The vocal groups participated in music festivals and received top ratings and command performance awards.

The string ensemble also won the highest ratings awarded at the annual State Music Festivals.

The band has participated extensively in the student body meetings as well as played at our football games.

In a combined effort the vocal music, string ensemble, and band, entertained the student body with a "Pops Concert." On May 20 they gave their annual spring concert for the public.

gain honors and awards

Top students have brought much honor to themselves and to Alameda High this year.

Karen Reed was this year's recipient of the Daughters of the American Revolution Good Citizens Award. This is offered annually to the senior girl who has been outstanding in community and school activities. The senior girls elect the winner.

Picked this year for a one-week stay in Ashland, Oregon, as the recipient of the Fellowship of Christian Athletics Scholarship was Gerry Crawford. Each year boys are interviewed by the Kiwanis Club and one senior who has maintained high athletic and scholastic records is awarded this $300 scholarship.

Representatives to Boys' and Girls' State this year were David Mantooth and Kathy Anderson. David went to the State Fair in Sacramento and Kathy attended Cal Davis where they and their fellow winners formed a state government for a week.

One of the most outstanding awards given is the Bank of America Achievement Award. This year there were four awards given in the school and three of those winners went on to place in zone competition.

Each year juniors throughout the nation take the National Merit Scholarship qualifying test. On the basis of the test results 14,000 semifinalists are nominated; from this list the scholarship winners are chosen. This year placing in the finalists and winning Letters of Merit were Bentson McFarland, Alice Watson, and Ray McKay. Receiving Letters of Comendation were Kathy Anderson, Eric Hartwig, Corazon Corpus, Jon Green and David Mantooth.

To become a member, a student must have an A-average in academic subjects. Life members are those students who have been members, after the freshmen year, for four semesters, at least one of which must be in the senior year. Life members are entitled to the life membership pin and to a gold seal on their diplomas. Each year a list of the many scholarships offered by colleges and universities is made available to life members of CSF.

In March, ten delegates attended the state conference at the University of California.

As a group they were the guests of the Star and Key Club on an excursion to San Jose where they visited the Winchester Mystery House and an Egyptian museum.

As services to the school, the CSF sponsors a paperback bookstore, "The Third Story" and a tutoring service for students.

the class of '66 presents . . .

"the bachelor and the bobby-soxer"

The cast assembles for curtain call.

Mr. Lloyd Sisler giving pointers to his student director, Gladys Maurice.

Manager and co-manager, Jim Greeley and Kathy Peterson, await the opening scene.

On November 19 and 20, the senior class of 1966 presented its situation comedy, "The Bachelor and the Bobby-Soxer."

The play was adopted for the stage by F. Andrew Leslie in 1947. It became a movie starring Cary Grant, Myrna Loy, and Shirley Temple.

The plot revolves around the confused love lives of Richard Nugent (Marc Clemente), a lively bachelor-artist who gets himself into some ridiculous situations with the law, and Judge Margaret Turner (Anita Birchenall), who first meets Nugent when she presides over his trial for disorderly conduct. Judge Turner's sister, Susan (Lynne Grace), falls in love with Nugent in an impromptu interview at her school after he has given a lecture on art in the school auditorium.

As things work out, Nugent is sentenced to date Susan. The judge was influenced by Matthew Beemish (Allen Golbert), the court psychiatrist and Margaret's uncle.

In the end, Jerry gets Susan, Margaret gets Richard, and the assistant district attorney, Margaret's old boyfriend (Allen McKean) gets carried off to the looney asylum.

Mr. Lloyd Sisler, assisted by student director, Gladys Maurice, chose and directed an able cast.

Dick	Marcos Clemente
Margaret	Anita Birchenall
Susan	Lynne Grace
Tommy	Alan McKean
Beemish	Allen Golbert
Thaddeus	Bill Greeley
Jerry	James Nason
Tony	Jeff Wieland
Bessie	Margie Ensley
Agnes Prescott	Kathy Waltz
Walters	Thomas Sartwell
Florence	Jane Ware
Melvin	Tom Hunter
Joey	Dan Eisleman
Bailiff	Richard White
Alex	Ray McKay
Mr. Overhalt	Eric Hartwig
Mrs. Overhalt	Margaret Souza
A waiter	Victor Poree
Cigarette Girl	Kendra Downing
Airlines Ticket Clerk	Susan Massoty
Police Officers	Dan Silva Barry Hodgkins
Students (two girls)	Linnea Hanson Kathy Anderson
An Official Voice and Plane Announcer	Richard White

Dan Eiselman, Kathy Waltz, Anita Birchenall, Marcos Clemente, and Lynne Grace run through the night club scene at dress rehearsal.

"Mr. Nugent, have you ever been in love?"

James Nason pursuing Marcos Clemente and Allen McKean in a wild foot race during the play.

Allen McKean disapprovingly views Marc's trophy, which in his opinion was undeservedly won.

Star witness Jeff Wieland winces when recalling the hard right he caught in the eye.

varsity has

The 1965 varsity football team placed second in ACAL standings with a 7-1-1 record. In the Hornets' first league game, they defeated Pacific, 7 to 6. Playing their next game against San Leandro, the Hornets suffered their only defeat of the season, 28 to 0, at the hands of a very strong team. The next two series games went smoothly. In the first, Richmond was beaten by a score of 27 to 6, and in the second, Berkeley was turned back by a 37 to 14 decision.

With anxious determination, the mighty Hornets then faced their traditional rival, Encinal. On their home turf the Encinal Jets battled furiously, tying the score at half time, 6 to 6. After festive half time activities, the Hornets returned to down their rivals, 12 to 6, for the seventh consecutive time.

As an encore the team polished off DeAnza, with a score of 32 to 14, and El Cerrito, 14 to 7. Rainy weather spoiled the Hornet's winning streak, as they met on Thompson Field to play Harry Ells and emerge with a 0 to 0 tie.

Coaching the Alameda Hornets this season were: (back) Coach Dennis Hennessee and Coach John McMillon; (front) Coach LeRoy Bernadou and Coach Forrest Klein.

Coach Forrest Klein, Principal Ralph Cioffi and the victorious Hornets proudly displayed the traditional trophy after the Encinal game.

The Hornets, led by Coaches Klein and McMillon, is the only team in the league that marches out onto the field to face the opponent before the start of a game.

gridiron stars named

Although the Hornets were not league champions in the 1965 football season, the quality of their play was exceptional. The team had the best defensive record in the ACAL.

Mike Kern, who was picked by Coach Forrest Klein as the best all-around lineman, was chosen to play on the East Bay All-Star Football squad as offensive guard.

Kurt Speier, captain of the Alameda squad, was also picked to play on the East Bay All-Star squad as defensive back. In addition, Kurt was nominated for the Football Foundation Hall of Fame. Also, he had one of the best academic reports submitted for the Scholar-Athletic Award for ACAL.

The All-ACAL Football team is divided into two teams, the first team, offense and defense, and the second team, offense and defense. Those from the Alameda squad who won places are: first team offensive guard, Mike Kern; defensive tackle, Warren Taylor; defensive linebacker, Mike Kern; defensive deep back, Kurt Speier. Second team included: offensive tackle, Warren Taylor; offensive quarterback, Bruce Lee; offensive running back, Gerry Crawford; and defensive end, Charles Slater.

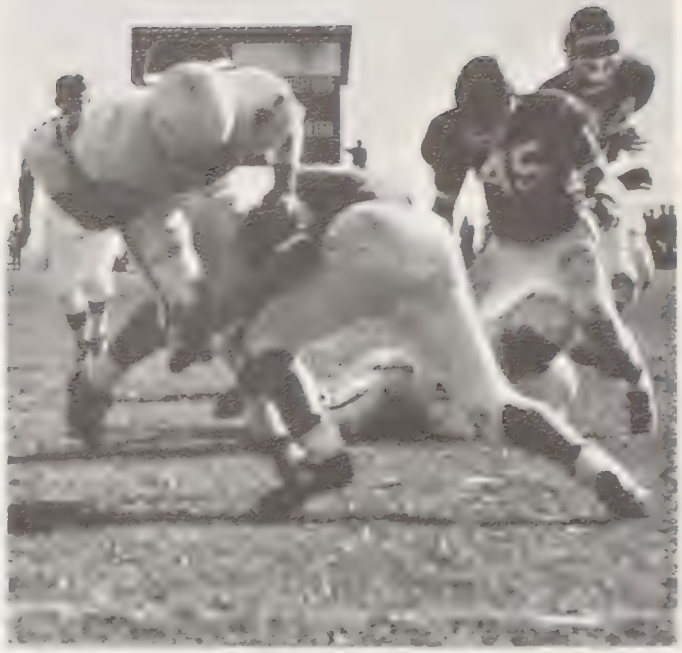
For their exceptional offensive plays, Lee Serles, center, Kurt Speier and Pat Rivas, running backs, all won honorable mentions from the ACAL critics.

John Daun (83) moves in to block an Encinal Jet as Gerry Crawford (44) grabs for the ball.

One block and it's home free for Kurt Speier (12).

The Berkeley squad (light jerseys) seemed to be in top condition as the game started. Only the score was against them as the game ended, 37 to 14.

In the locker room, Bill Lockhart (74) and Wally Beaver (76) talk over the game to be played.



An Alameda player is tackled by a Jet formation in the Encinal game.

The team on the bench are just as important as the team on the field, as they provide the initiative and spirit the team needs when the game goes badly.

Even though the 1965 J.V. Football team sustained injuries in the early part of the season, it was able to make a comeback and finish up strong.

The team started the season by losing its first three games, Pacific 19 to 0, San Leandro 13 to 7, and Richmond 45 to 7, respectively. The team's hard luck began to diminish when it tied Berkeley 13 to 13. They then went on to defeat Encinal, who had thus far had an undefeated season 19 to 6. Next DeAnza was tied 6 to 6. The J.V.'s whipped El Cerrito, who had also had an undefeated season so far, 21 to 13, and Ells 20 to 13.

Coaches Dennis Hennessee and LeRoy Bernadou named Mike Kotte as the exceptional player. The coaches also predict a good season for the varsity team next year as this years J.V.'s go on to play varsity.

Harry Ells players (in white) seem to have the advantage over the J.V.'s, only the score was against them 20 to 13, as the game ended.

Coaches Hennessee and Bernadou are carried off on the shoulders of the victorious J.V. after the defeat of Ells.

soph-frosh aims for future

Though the 1965 soph-frosh football team did not have a winning season, it made an improvement over previous years' team records. Despite the fact that many ACAL schools do not have freshmen classes and therefore do not field freshmen teams, Alameda's young gridmen established a 2-4-1 record.

Coaches Bill Thompson and Mike McGovern named frosh fullback Barry Murphy as outstanding ground gainer, pass receiver and one of the better defensive players.

The seasons scores were:

Alameda	0	San Leandro	0
Alameda	7	Richmond	6
Alameda	20	Berkeley	0
Alameda	0	Encinal	14
Alameda	6	DeAnza	13
Alameda	6	El Cerrito	35
Alameda	26	Ells	34

Ells defenders had a tough time stopping the soph-frosh team.

Outstanding Soph-Frosh player Barry Murphy (32) makes a beautiful breakaway from Harry Ells defenders.

Hornets' Randy Markiel (43), one of the outstanding forwards of the season, leaps for the basket. Alameda fell short to Encinal, 69 to 48.

strong on spirit

Pat Sloan battles for possession of the ball for his teammates, while Andy Weber (54) and Greg Dunn (22) ward off unwanted interference.

After winning all seven of their pre-season games, the 1965-66 Hornet varsity basketball cagers lost steam in ACAL league play.

As the season began, the team was under the guidance of Coach Marvin Pearson. Later, due to illness of Coach Pearson, Mr. David Kracl assumed the coaching duties.

The 1965-66 season produced a fine crop of outstanding individual players. Pat Sloan was named by Coach Pearson as the most exceptional forward of the season. Kurt Speier was named the most valuable guard, with Randy Markiel chosen as the outstanding forward.

The season's scores were:

First round ACAL

Alameda	50	De Anza	59
Alameda	58	Pacific	95
Alameda	43	El Cerrito	83
Alameda	48	Encinal	69

Andy Weber leaps above his guards to shoot for the basket.

Mike Gerson, guard, practices up on his jump shots.

Randy Markiel, forward, practices his hooks for perfection.

j.v. and soph teams

Looks are deceiving. Dave Bussell (50) seems trapped but he's ready for a quick pass to his man in the corner, Ron Watson.

The Alameda J.V.'s fought hard this season against their tall opponents. Mr. Leland Stanford assumed coaching duties when Mr. Kracl moved up to coach the varsity team. Outstanding players through the 1965-66 season were: Mike Jones, John McPhee and Ron Watson.

The season's scores were:

First round ACAL

Alameda	34	DeAnza	51
Alameda	39	Pacific	54
Alameda	40	El Cerrito	45
Alameda	44	Encinal	42

gain valuable experience

Striving for perfection in dribbling, pivoting, defensive, and offensive playing was the main objective of this year's soph-frosh basketball team. Since most schools do not have soph-frosh teams, the team had to play upper classmen. Coach Calder Hayes has an optimistic outlook for the future of the boys on the team. The outstanding players were: Mike Amos, all around player; Eric Cross, scoring; Dennis Peterson and Steve Carter, defense and rebounding.

Dennis Peterson (54) defense, has his hands full as he turns for a pass to his teammate.

After winning two and losing four games in the practice season the Hornet baseball varsity stood like this:

Kurt Speier	Catcher	Senior
Greg Dunn	First Baseman	Senior
Bruce Lee	Pitcher-Right Field	Senior (Captain)
Randy Markiel	Pitcher-Right Field	Senior
Vince Sedillo	Center Field	Junior
Pat Clark	Left Field	Junior
Al Thomas	Third Baseman	Junior
Mel Arnerich	Second Baseman	Sophomore
Chris Speier	Short Stop	Sophomore

other squad members include:

Charles Slater	Outfield	Senior
Jim Wilson	Catcher	Senior
Mike Kaney	Infield	Junior
Greg Orton	Pitcher	Junior
Bruce Robles	Pitcher	Junior

At copy deadline time, the highlight of the season was the winning of the inter-city championship by beating both Encinal and St. Joseph's 1-0.

In league play the team played well but lost close ball games. The team lost to El Cerrito 1-0, Berkeley 4-3, De Anza 2-0, San Leandro 4-3, Richmond 3-1, Harry Ells 1-2, Pacific 3-8, Encinal 3-7, El Cerrito 4-2, and Berkeley 0-1.

It looked as if the team might win many games if they continued to play as well as they had and get a few good bounces.

Top pitchers have been Bruce Lee, Randy Markiel and Bruce Robles, out for the season with a severe ankle strain. Kurt Speier and Pat Clark supplied most of the batting punch.

With returning juniors and members of the J.V. team coming to varsity next year, the team has a good chance of prospering.

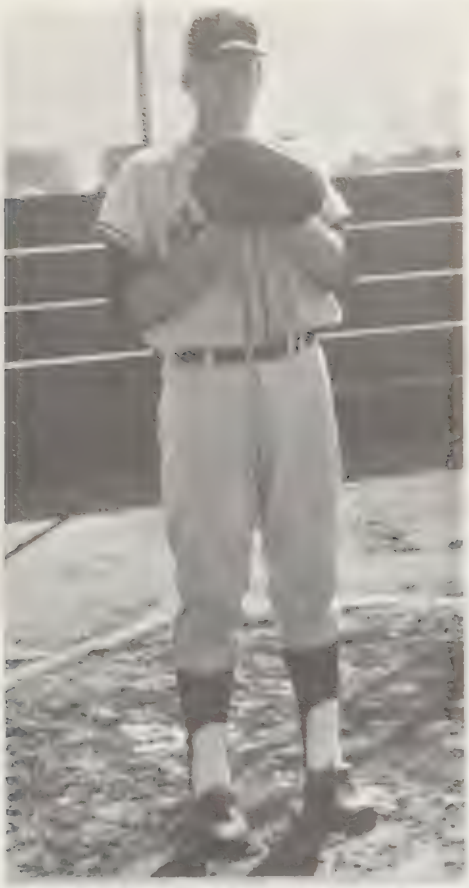
j.v.'s make a good show on the diamond



Chuck Dillard, catcher, stands ready to receive the ball during one of the many practice sessions for the J.V.

Coach Dennis Hennessee's J.V. squad proved to be a winning team. At deadline time they had 4-1 in the practice season, while in league play were 3-2.

Chuck Dillard, catcher, and Jack Brown, David Smith and Paul Hoopaugh, pitchers, have held the opposition down so the bats of Steve McAulliffe, Gary Fascilla, Pat King and Pat Sloan could drive in the winning runs.

Many of the J.V. members this year will make up the varsity squad next year.

The catcher for the opposition seems a little bewildered because Gary Fascilla intercepted the ball and sent it on its way.

soph-frosh are future varsity material

The soph-frosh baseball team, under the coaching of Mr. Michael McGovern, is having one of its more successful seasons. Playing steady defense and attacking offensively with timely hitting and base stealing, the team gained many victories in their games with Berkeley West Campus, Willard, Bishop O'Dowd, John Muir and the annual game with the J.V.'s.

The outstanding batters were Barry Murphy, Marc Hansen, Mike Russell, and Ron Coffman, and pitchers were Charles Pyle, Mike Russell and Marc Hansen. They are expected to help gain championships for the varsity in the next three years.

Ron Coffman, one of the outstanding batters of the season, executes beautiful form as he cheats the catcher out of the ball.

Charles Pyle, pitcher, lets fly with one of his specials to foil the opposing team.

water polo

Navy (in black caps) opponents seemed undecided about their course of action, but Mike Janvier (7) looked satisfied. Navy lost, 8 to 3.

In only its second year of competition for Alameda High, the 1965 water polo team, under the tutelage of Coach Dave Fairfield, showed promise for the future.

Entering the season with high hopes, after a 1-3 record in 1964, this year's team won its first game against Navy, 6 to 3. The two following meets, against South San Francisco High and Orinda Aquabears, ended in defeat, the first by a score of 13 to 5 and the second 19 to 7. Again came an exciting meet against Navy. We were defeated by a one-tally edge, 6 to 5. The water polo team ended its season by defeating the Beverly Swim Club, 19 to 6.

Since the majority of the players will return next year, the 1966 season should be even better.

Gaining height to execute a forward two-and-one-half somersalt is Jim Swick, diver.

The 1966 swim team, under the direction of Coach Ash Jones, was proving itself at copy deadline to be heading for another ACAL championship and also worthy of winning the North Coast Division Title. The team has won three ACAL championships straight already.

The varsity is composed of many outstanding swimmers, among them, Gary Gamble (soph), Larry Lozensky (soph), Maltbie Napoleon (frosh), and Greg West (sr.). The J.V.'s outstanding team members are Lance Seely (frosh), and Kirk Peel (frosh).

With the returning varsity swimmers and the J.V. swimmers, the team has a bright future ahead.

The season's scores thus far have been:

Cal Frosh	61	Alameda 33
Stanford	67	Alameda 27
Chico Relays	(13 teams)	Alameda first with 102 points
Skyline	27	Alameda 65

cross country

hard practice characterizes season

Joaquin Valley Park in the Oakland Hills was the practice site of the 1965 cross country team. All boys who signed up for the team were accepted. Under the supervision of Mr. Leland Stanford, they devoted many ardous hours to practice, running on the average of fifty miles a week.

At the Fall Sports Award Banquet, Mark Donnell was named the outstanding runner, Mike Battu most improved, and Dave Osterdock most inspirational.

Each year a traditional map prize is given to the boy who is the first to lose his way during practice. Barry Weiss, senior, started the tradition and Rick Emery was the 1965 winner.

Mr. Stanford was disappointed at the turnout of spectators during the season. There was only one person at the home meet, which the team won. In future years he hopes to see an enthusiastic supporting crowd.

Keeping in excellent physical condition with daily runs is what has made these the top five varsity members. Pictured are, left to right, Mark Donnell, Don Wooten, David Kreiss, Mike Battu, and Dan Williams.

This season's scores were:

Sept. 22—Clayton Valley, 24; Antioch, 28; Hogan, 43; Alameda, 68.
Sept. 27—Marina, 21; Alameda, 25.
Sept. 29—Alameda, 23; Castro Valley, 35.
Oct. 6—Alameda, 21; Ells, 35; Pacific, 47.
Oct. 9—Sacramento Invitational — Alameda 8th.
Oct. 13—Richmond, 19; Encinal, 24; Alameda, 39.
Oct. 20—San Leandro, 18; El Cerrito, 25; Alameda, 43.
Oct. 23—Terra Nova Invitational — Alameda 5th.
Oct. 27—DeAnza, 20; Berkeley, 23; Alameda, 47.
Nov. 2—Berkeley, 18; San Leandro, 21; Encinal, 36; Alameda, 47; Pacific, 68.
Nov. 12—ACAL—Alameda 6th.

A brisk daily run helped Mark Donnell to keep fit and become the most outstanding runner of the season.

track team wins

Winning four of its last five meets, the varsity track team finished the season with a 4-8 record. Included in these wins were victories over Encinal and St. Josephs, which gave Alameda its first Island Championship in 11 years. In addition the team placed 7th at the Martinez Relays.

The team had many fine members. Terry Adams (senior) and Hyland Morrow (junior) in pole vault, and Tom Morrison in high jump, made the Alameda All-Time Track Team. Mike Kern (senior) set a school record in the shot put and also made the All-Time Track Team in the discus. In addition Kern was the high point man for the varsity.

Watching good form, Ken Fong soars over the bar in the pole vault.

island championship

It takes a mighty effort on the part of Tom Morrison to propel his body over the pole. He is a member of the All-Time Track Team for high jump.

Mike Kern exhibits his exceptional form in shot put which gained him a new school record for that event.

Walt DeCelle's endurance and will to win brought to him a 1st in the Varsity 880.

Jeff Carr follows through during his discus throw as it is important to keep good form until the discus is on its way.

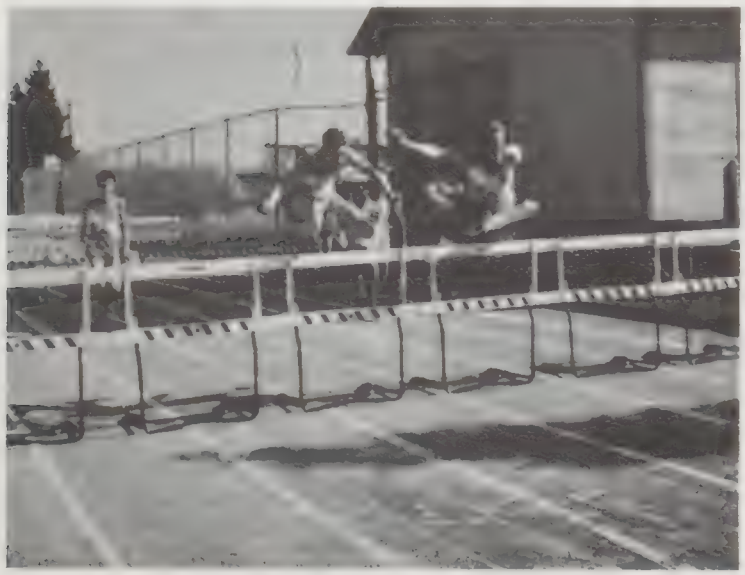
j.v.'s and sophs poin

The B team, which scored highly in the A.C.A.L. Championships, finished the season with a 7-5 record. School records were set in the 100 by Bob Lannon 10.3, in the 220 by Alan Jordon 23.1, and in the 440 by Eric Cross 55.3. In the shot put record was set by Paul Schroeder, and in the pole vault by Ken Fong. Paul Schroeder was the teams high point man.



Alameda showed good form as they placed first and second in the 70 yd. high hurdles. Pictured are; left to right—Richard Smith, Champ Lorber first, Glenn Pfeiffer and Mike Walker second.

Paul Schroeder way ahead of his opponents came in first in the 440 with a 55.7.

Ben Garfinkle takes a good, long running start before his broad jump.

The Frosh Team had its best season in A.H.S. history with a record of 5-1-1. The team had a fine crop of outstanding players, Champ Lorber, Kirby Eaton, Dennis Peterson, Jim Parodi, and George Throckmorton. Eric Cross was the high point man.

In high jump Dale Turner makes a mighty effort in order to clear the pole.

With a mighty backhand, Dick Keiser, one of the outstanding players, returns the ball over the net to his opponent.

Up until deadline time the A.H.S. Tennis Team had defeated all but one of its opponents in pre-league matches. Coach John McMillon has high hopes for the team as it goes into league play.

The team is composed of many good players, among whom are three outstanding fellows, George Grywalski, junior, Kim Codiga, senior, and Dick Keiser, senior, all single players.

George Grywalski stretches to whack the ball back over the net from whence it came.

Mike Pingree, senior, shows good form and follow thru as he slices the ball down the fairway.

The 1966 A.H.S. Golf Team has three returning lettermen. Ron Rapposelli, second medalist in league play last year, Dann Carter and Steve Fallaw make up the nucleus of the 1966 team. Returning team members Frank Jacopetti, Art Simmons, Scott Robinson, Mike Pingree, Jim Wigge, Mike Rappeselli, along with Frosh candidates Al Braga, Brent Wong, Fred Cunningham, and Charles King, make up the remainder of the team.

After winning the ACAL Golf Championship 6 years in a row, the A.H.S. team had to settle for second place to Berkeley last year. The season was not over at deadline time, but if the new members came along as expected the team should have been in contention for the championship this spring.

The highlight of the practice season was winning the first Alameda City Championship from St. Joseph's and Encinal. Overall practice record of the team at deadline was 5-4. The A.H.S. team hosted the first ACAL Match at the Alameda Municipal Golf Course on Monday, April 25th.

Utmost concentration is needed for Scott Robinson to complete his shot. Scott is a junior and also a returning team member.

g.a.a. for

One of the newer sports offered in G.A.A. was riflery. Many girls decided to take advantage of the opportunity to learn about rifles and their upkeep.

The members of G.A.A. have sponsored many activities this year. Among these were a talent show, the first one in which the P.E. teachers participated, a pin contest, the object of which to collect as many safety pins as possible for the P.E. Department, to loan to students when necessary, the usual candy sales and a Playday where 8th grade girls of various elementary schools came to participate in sports in a sponsored activity after school. The 8th graders came from Lincoln, Porter, and Haight.

Sportsdays and Playdays are important athletic activities which G.A.A. sponsors. Participants of these activities are G.A.A.'s from other schools including Encinal, Oakland Tech., San Leandro, and Fremont. Alameda's G.A.A. was invited to participate with Encinal's, Berkeley's, San Leandro's, University of California's, and San Francisco State's G.A.A.'s.

The goal of G.A.A. is to promote excellent sportsmanship both in team and individual sports. It is also to teach girls advanced skills in a variety of sports, including archery, badmitton, tennis, riflery, hockey, bowling, soccerball, and fencing.

G.A.A. is represented by six officers who help manage the organization. They plan various activities such as a fudge or pencil sale and the senior annual spread where the new officers are announced and various awards are given. Officers are elected each semester and the managers represent the various sports presented each quarter.

Gay Moore, along with many other girls, was able to improve her game when G.A.A. offered bowling.

pep club grows this year

Despite the fact that it is a relatively new organization, the Pep Club has the largest membership of any club at A.H.S. A new rule was passed by the Ad Board this spring stating that any girl trying out for yell leader or pompon girl must be an active member of the club.

The main purpose of this club is to promote school spirit and activate an interest in all sports in our school. During the year, the Pep Club sponsored two candy sales and special clinics for those interested in becoming pompon girls or yell leaders.

Sharon Mesple awaits sign-ups for the Pep Club membership drive.

the humanities forum seeks the truth

The Humanities Forum is particularly interested in dealing with the various arts.

The club, a group of approximately 30 students, meets once every three weeks on Monday nights.

Field trips are also part of the program, with excursions to museums, concerts, and different art exhibits. Members read and discuss books and plays at most of their meetings.

Sponsors for the Humanities Forum are Miss Fran Claggett and Miss Madge Holland.

Terry Tucker, Alice Oliver, and Tom Sartwell listen to a discussion of John Updike's The Centaur.

The honor society of G.A.A., the Women's Block "A" Society, is an organization for girls who have received 1200 points in G.A.A. The girls may accumulate points by participating in activities sponsored by the Girls Athletics Association such as cake sales, pencil sales and various sports offered by the G.A.A.

Among the activities of the Block "A" Society during the year were a pom-pon sale, a decal sale and the Initiation Dinner in which eligible girls received the Block "A" signifying the attainment of the high standards necessary to be accepted into this organization. There were three girls in the Block "A" Society during the first semester, and the number increased to fourteen the second semester. Mrs. Blunden sponsors these girls.

To be eligible for the Men's Block "A" society, a boy must have earned his varsity letter in at least one competitive sport.

Among their activities this year were a leukemia march, a dinner at the Red Lamp Restaurant, a barbecue and dance at Lincoln Park, and of course, the annual Block "A" vs. the Faculty basketball game in which the faculty won. Mr. John MacMillon sponsors this sports minded club.

many changes were made by ad board

Many changes were made this year by the Administrative Board headed by speakers Russ Fisher in the Fall and Jim Greeley in the Spring.

One of the biggest changes came in the voting system. Instead of voting for student body officers in advisories, at the spring election booths were set up outside the building. Anyone with a student body card could vote. Unfortunately, only 32% of the student body cast their ballots.

This spring a new office on Ad Board was created, that of Publicity Manager. Duties of the office entail letting the student body know about Ad Board activities. Carol Spatcher, the first to hold this office, established the Round-Up Board in the lobby to tell what the Board has been doing. Not only is a copy of the budget posted in the lobby, but anyone who wants his own copy can ask board members for one.

A newly established Student Court caused changes in the A.H.S. judicial system this spring.

In prior years and during the fall semester, the Men's and Women's Boards of Control both issued citations to accused offenders and sat in judgement upon them. A change in the A.H.S. Constitution allowed the Student Court to hear cases, determine innocent or guilty, and pass sentence.

Court members include Diane Warner, Steve Hann, Jayne Ware, Linda Kamby, Kurt Speier and Chief Tribunal David Mantooth.

Duties left to the Board, headed by Jayne Ware and Tom Linkart in the fall and Caroline Thibodeau and Kim Codiga in the spring, included policing hallway traffic and football games, having stair duty, and being present at student body and Girls Association meetings in the auditorium.

Initiated this Fall in Girls' Association were two new traditions. One girl each semester will be chosen, other than the officers, who has helped G.A. the most. The distinction of being awarded the "Outstanding Member of the Semester" award went to Stephanie Zuras in the fall and Judi Rogers in the Spring.

Advisory Board, also new this year, is composed of one member from each advisory. The Board is responsible for assisting the officers in planning meetings and activities.

Other activities during the year included the dance "Arabian Nights," freshman reception "Topsy Turban," fashion show "Fashions Fantasy," the Senior Mother-Daughter Tea, a Wendy Ward fashion show, and several cake sales.

Each year the American Field Service sends a foreign exchange student to A.H.S. This year our student was Marcos Clemente, from San Paulo, Brazil. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith and son, Jan, were Marc's "parents" while he attended senior classes at Alameda.

During the year Marc was very active with the Senior Play, eighty lectures for civic clubs in Alameda and Oakland, a week-long trip to Davis to attend the university and high school there, a trip to southern California and Mexico, and a summer bus tour through-out the U.S.

Because of the many close friendships Marcos has developed with Mr. Howard Billings advisory, his varied American experiences with many students as well as teachers, and especially with his "brother" Jan and his family, Marc plans to return to Alameda someday.

Mamas (seniors) and Babies (underclassmen) battled again this year in the fourth annual Powder Puff game. All proceeds from tickets and programs go to the A.F.S. Program. This year the grand total was $509.38.

Coaching the winning Babies were Steve Mills (Head), Kip Nelson, Trent Casperson, Mike Kotte, and Craig McDonald. Mark Koike (Head), Gerry Crawford, Dan Russel, Charles Hargle, and Wally Beaver coached the Mama's. The score was 19-13.

The Powder Puff game was given coverage by the Alameda Times Star, Oakland Tribune, S.F. Examiner, K.C.B.S. radio, C.B.S. Channel 5, and K.T.V.U. Channel 2 T.V.

"moonlight and roses" enchants a.h.s.'ers

This year's Junior Prom theme held to a liberal sprinkling of red roses and moonlight.

Several large topiary trees with red tissue paper roses surrounded the Queen's throne at the back of the A.H.S. gym. On the night of Dec. 15 in the middle of the floor under the revolving "moonlight" chandelier, was a flowing fountain. Along the sides were large moons with clusters of red paper roses.

At 10:15 P.M. all present awaited the announcement of the queen. Sam Hollis, prom manager, crowned Queen Sonja Bruins and offered a congratulatory kiss. The co-manager, Carolyn Marberry, awarded the traditional dozen roses. Queen Sonja's court included Diane Walker, Dawn Reed, Sandra Townley, and Peggy Dunn.

Suits were the order of the night for the boys, with the girls wearing either long or short formals. This was the first year that many girls wore long dresses to the prom.

Carolyn Marberry presents the traditional roses to Queen Sonja.

Before the queen was announced, the contestants and co-manager were tense with excitement.

Allan McKean wears a surprised look along with one of the larger leis at the dance.

Walter De Celle and Greg Orton, from the Impacts, were among the six in the winning band.

On Oct. 30, the Sophomore class presented its annual dance. This year's theme "Bewitched" used Halloween as keynote for decorations.

Traditionally it is a girl ask boy dance, with the girls giving candy leis to their dates. The leis are handmade and may weigh as much as seven or eight pounds.

This stag or drag affair had the Boges and the Impacts for live entertainment. The Impacts were the winners of a band battle staged during the dance.

Gym decorations consisted mostly of large black cats, scary witches, leggy spiders and blind bats.

One of the longer leis is worn by Kathy Brady and Eric Hartwig, who demonstrate one of its more versatile uses.

Fewer dances were held this year because it was generally agreed upon, among teachers and students, that there were too many dances last year. With only five dances, each sponsored by a club except for the opening Ad Board dance, there were more participants than last year.

Titles of the dances included "The Dance," "Trapped," "The Arabian Night," "Bewitched," and "Moonlight and Roses."

vocal ensemble brings pride to alameda

Vocal Ensemble, the most advanced of A.H.S.'s three choirs, was asked to participate in many East Bay functions. Some of the more important performances included church services aboard the U.S.S. Hancock and U.S.S. Ranger, the annual Kiwanis Club performance, a song fest at Cal State, and for a school superintendent's meeting at the Galleon.

The high point of the year came when Vocal was asked to be the guest choir at the Oakland Public School Choir Concert on March 29.

Deciding that new uniforms were needed, Vocal's members chose to buy their own sweaters, pink for the girls and gray for the boys.

As the camera sees it from the top.

Each year the Instrumental Music Department is busy. This year is no exception.

Under the direction of Mr. Carlton Hanson and his student director, Frank Sligh, the orchestra performed for the Kiwanis Club, assemblies for the feeder grammar schools—Porter, Lincoln, and Haight—Spring Concert, Senior and All School Plays, and the Christmas Pageant.

Dance Band, under Mr. Dominic Vinceguerra, this year performed before the student body in a Pops Concert, and at the Spring Concert. Members are choosen mostly from the Band and rehearse in the mornings.

During football games you could usually hear the Band, also directed by Mr. Vinceguerra. Other activities of the Band were playing for Spring Concert and student body meetings, and marching in the Veterans and Christmas parades.

Scenes created for customers in a card shop carried out the "Greetings Glorious" theme of the twenty-first annual A. H. S. Christmas Pageant on Dec. 16.

The pageant was written and directed by Mr. Lloyd Sisler, who has performed the same duties for the previous 26 productions with the help of the music, art, and P. E. dance instructors.

The pageant is Alameda High's Christmas gift to the community, as the admission is free.

Each scene presented an animated "card" for "customers" who sought just the right greeting to send their friends. The inspirations for the card scenes were provided by Dickens' "Christmas Carol," a candy shop, a letter to Viet Nam, Currier and Ives, beatniks, Chanakual and the Nativity.

Written by French playwright Jean Giraudoux, the 1966 All-School Play, "Tiger at the Gates," is set in the time of the Trojan War, but it carries a very timely message about human hypocrisy during wartime.

High points of the drama, presented March 11 and 12, include the abduction of Helen, the Greek Queen, by Paris of Troy, the agreements by Prince Hector of Troy and Ulysses of Greece not to enter war, the petty reasons given by Hector's fellow Trojans for beginning battle, Hector's ceremonial closing of gates of war and his oration for the dead. Finally comes the realization that war is inevitable when, in his dying words, the Trojan poet Demokos falsely accuses the Greek Ajax of having murdered him.

Alameda's school newspaper The Oakleaf, received a facelifting this year.

Mrs. Corrinne Bird, new faculty advisor, suggested several revisions for the paper this year. The new four-page Oakleaf is now being printed on regular newsprint. With this change and others, the staff can stay within their allotted budget.

Two other new policies were a more forceful editorial attitude and less staff creative writing. The stories and poems that are printed are submitted by students.

The Oakleaf is produced once every two months and distributed on Wednesdays in long advisory.

acorn planning year around

Usually seen with some pictures in hand is Miss Judy Bristow, editorial staff advisor.

Beginning with staff meetings in the summer of 1965, the ideas for the 1966 Acorn began to take shape. Up until the final printing deadline late this spring, members of both staffs, editorial and business, worked during school hours, weekends, and vacations to complete the book.

Believing that the yearbook is the students' book, advisor Miss Judith Bristow had the student co-editors, Caroline Thibodeau and Tom Hunter, Layout Editor Valarie Olsen and section editors of the editorial staff make most of the plans for the book.

With the total cost of the Acorn amounting to more than $7000, the business staff, headed by Carol Schwartz and Ann Gallagher and advised by Miss Madge Holland, had the responsibility of raising the necessary funds.

September

13 Mr. Cioffi and Dr. Snell welcomed new and old students on the first day of the school year.

14 Our first noon rally, with new Head Yell Leader Janet Trulin and Head Pom-pon Girl Karen Wilson put us into the football spirit early.

15 The freshmen began a course of orientation, instructed by head counselor, Mr. Robert Bartley.

15 For the first time in recent years, pictures were taken to be put on our student body cards, on permanent school record cards, and in the Acorn.

16 The first J.V. football game this year was with Pacific, who defeated us, 19-0.

17 The Hornets played their first football game and beat Pacific, 7-6.

22 Our team was beaten in our first cross country meet; Clayton Valley, 24; Antioch, 28; Hogan, 43; Alameda, 68.

24 "The Dance", put on by the Ad Board, was our first Drag or Stag affair.

30 Accompanied by their Senior Sisters, the girls of the class of 1970 attended the G. A. Freshmen Reception, an annual event acquainting and entertaining the girls.

October

15 Our Hornets defeated our rival, Encinal, 12-6 in a well-fought game.

20 Becky Wilmoth and Carol Sato were selected to represent our school as American Field Service exchange students aboard.

29 The sophomores' hard work paid off. They enjoyed a very successful Soph Hop, "Bewitched."

30 This weekend saw our first out-of-state football game. The Hornet team, along with many interested students, parents and teachers, traveled to Reno to defeat Reno High, 39-7.

November

8 Midterm Exams

12 An earth Science Field Trip to Mt. Hamilton was made by the Chemistry Club, accompanied by Mrs. Jean Braun.

15 The five finalists selected for the Junior Prom queen were Dawn Reed, Sonja Bruins, Sandra Townley, Peggy Dunn and Diane Walker.

19-20 The class of 66's Senior Play, "The Bachelor and the Bobbysoxer," starred our foreign exchange student, Marcos Clemente.

23 After an unbeaten series of pre-season games, the A.H.S. cagers lost their first league game with De Anza, 50-59.

December

3 Sonja Bruins was crowned queen at the Junior Prom, "Moonlight and Roses."

11 The Ski Club enjoyed a day at Sugar Bowl.

16 A.H.S.' Annual Christmas Pageant, "Greetings Glorious," narrated by Alan McKean, was presented before the student body and public.

January

3 We came back to school after an all too short Christmas vacation.

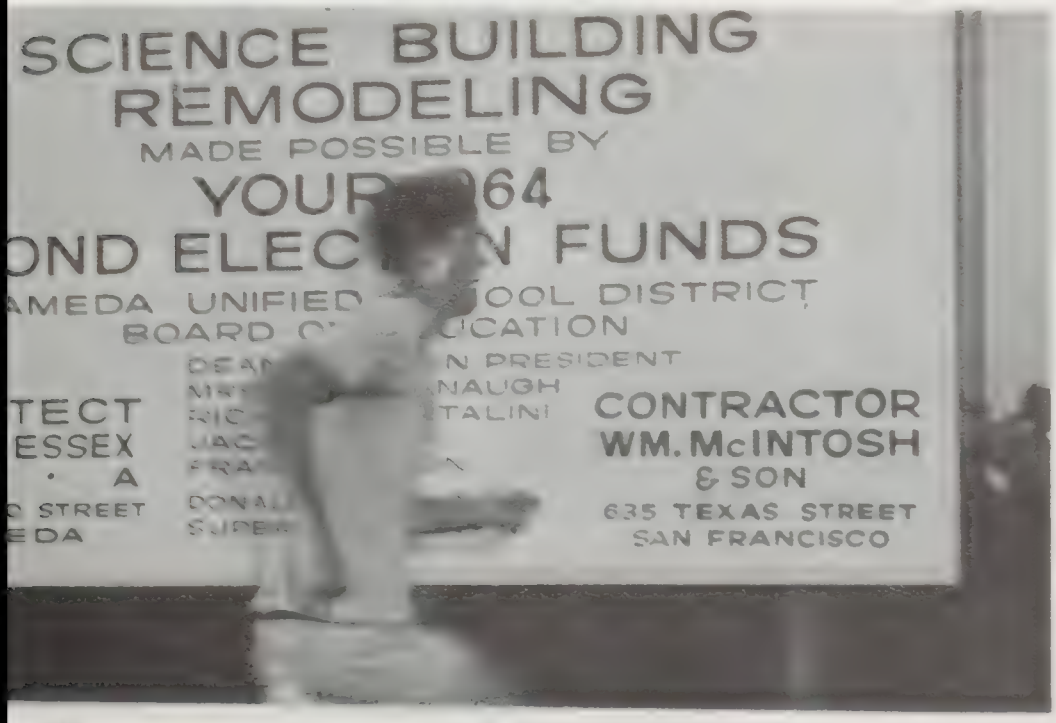
11 For the first time, A.H.S. students registered and voted for student body officers outside advisory. Voting booths were erected and stood at various places around the school. A disappointing 33% of the students voted.

14 Emperor Gene Nelson, a disc jockey from KYA radio, San Francisco, entertained those who attended the G.A. Dance, "Arabian Nights".

20 Karen Reed received the D.A.R. Good Citizenship Award at the student body meeting today.

21, 24-25 Fall final exams.

Buzzy, the school's mascot, portrayed by Jim Swick, was present at many of the football games.



An outward sign of inward chaos . . .

spring

February

7-11 During A.F.S. Exchange week, Suzanne Schubert, German foreign exchange student spending the year at Woodland High School in Davis, visited our school. She spent the week at the home of Vickie Simi. Marcos Clememte, A.H.S.'s Brazilian exchange student, attended Suzanne's school that week.

8 After a well-fought battle, the Encinal Jets defeated our basketball team, 60-77.

11 Accompanied by Mrs. Edna Cundiff, the Chemistry Club visited the Standard Oil Refinery in Richmond.

21 A.H.S. closed down today because of a state-wide flu epidemic. At the peak of the epidemic, 15 teachers were absent, along with 624 students, almost one-third of the student body.

March

9 Mrs. Coke's iguanas were found under the refrigerator in her room after they were reported missing.

11 Our first track meet was with Ells. We were defeated, 75-47.

11-12 "Tiger at the Gates", our all school play, was centered around the Trojan War. As a publicity stunt, the classes each chose a Helen of Troy to represent them. Marilyn Tudal, elected by the Senior class as their Helen, was presented before the audiences both nights.

11-12-13 The Ski Club spent a weekend in Yosemite National Park, skiing above the valley at Badger Pass.

17 The Senior Mamas were defeated by the Babies, 19-13, in the fourth annual Powder Puff football game.

18 "Trapped", the annual "S" Club Dance, was the last dance of the year, and proved to be very successful.

22 The Hornets defeated Encinal, 1-0, in our first league baseball game.

29-31 Midterm Exams.

April

1-3 The Ski Club journeyed to Squaw Valley for the second three-day trip of the year.

4-8 Easter vacation finally arrived, to the joy and relief of most of the students. Teachers resumed their science and shop classes after vacation in the newly remodeled Science Building.
Alice Watson, Ray McKay, and Bentson McFarland were named Finalists for the National Merit Scholarship. Leland Mew and David Mantooth received California State Scholarships.

May

7 Members of the Encinal and Alameda High "S" Clubs participated in their annual fashion show at Lum School.

15 Senior mothers enjoyed spending an afternoon with their daughters at the G.A. Mother-Daughter Tea at the Encinal Yacht Club.

20 The Music Department presented a night of music at their annual Spring Concert.

24 On Senior Hat and Sock Day, the graduating class donned their classic headdresses, surprising many underclassmen.

27 Castlerock was the site of the class of 66's Senior Picnic.

June

2 Mixed emotions were evident during the peerless Senior Meeting.

7-9 Senior Exams—seniors faced their last exam week.

10 For the first time, the Senior Ball was held outside the school, at the Encinal Yacht Club.

10-14 Spring Final Exams for underclassmen.

14 The seniors dined in the Madador Room at the Edgewater Inn for their Banquet.

16 The long-awaited day finally arrived —after graduation the seniors went to Mel's Bowl for their All Night Party.

the ninemonth
fourth dimension begins at the wane when the color of the sky is washed down to the leaves and as it drips from the scene
the fancies go into hibernation making way for sleet and chill.
the year turns letting the color rise and bud dawning over the sleeping ground.
in slow embarkment
the hot point zenith
the climax for the pedant
guiding the enticement of wisdom
all twelvemonth is life's discovery
forever today.
